Examiner's Amendment

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows: claims 6, 19, 32 and 45 have been amended to comply with the requirement for ending claims with a period. In each of the claims a period is substituted for the semicolon at the end of each claim.

6. (Amended) The method of claim 1 wherein said first instruction is defined for a first processor having a first base; and said second instruction is defined for a second processor having a second base[;].

19. (Amended) The method of claim 14 wherein said first instruction is defined for a first processor having a first base; and said second instruction is defined for a second processor having a second base[;].

32. (Amended) The program storage device of claim 27 wherein said first instruction is defined for a first processor having a first base; and said second instruction is defined for a second processor having a second base[;].

45. (Amended) The method of claim 40 wherein said first instruction is defined for a first processor having a first base; and said second instruction is defined for a second processor having a second base[;].

Drawings

2. The drawings submitted on 11/12/03 have been approved by the examiner.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the closest references of record is the patents to Schwabe (6,363,523 and 6,687,898) and the publication to Schwabe (2004/0073894). However, neither reference teach or suggest the features of converting instructions in a chain of instructions to a wider base when at least one operand carries the potential for overflow beyond a second base and when an operator is sensitive to overflow in which the chain is bounded by a second instruction and a third instruction that is the source of potential overflow associated with at least one operand and the third instruction having been previously optimized.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to John Chavis whose telephone number is (571) 272-3720. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F, 9:00am-5:30pm, EST.
